HLRP (5-10-1979):

"Aunt Nettie and Aunt Jennie were so upset that ora and Will wanted the house done over. 'It was good enough for us. Why do you have to change it," they said.' "

On 03-18-1979, MLW visited at The Homestead Golf Course. During that visit, HLRP showed her Copy No. 2 of PN... MLW leafed through the entire volume. On seeing the various listings of books that belonged to members of the Russell family noted as being presently located in "the Library" at the Homestead, MLW remarked: "I see there's now a 'Library' at the Homestead. I suppose the next step is to make this place (the Russell Homestead) a national monument."
